WINSTON EDWARDS BADLY INJURED BY AUTOMOBILE TODAY

TWELVE YEAR OLD SON OF MR.
AND MRS. LEW EDWARDS
RUN OVER

BOYS WERE PLAYING IN STREET

Front Wheel Passed Over His Body and Broke His Leg and Injured
His Body and Head—He Will Recover

Winston Edwards, the twelve year son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Edwards, 114, E. Chamberlain street, was run over and badly injured by a five passenger automobile, owned and driven by Chris Brogott of Coleta street near the corner of Fellows street and Hennepin avenue, where the young victim was playing with some friends.

Mr. Brogott who was driving the car, which was enclosed with curtains, states that he noticed the boys playing along the curb as he approached slowly from the west, and that as he drew near them they started to run into the road. Young Edwards apparently either misjudged the car, or was pushed in front of it by his playmates, for the heavy machine, in which five of the driver's family and friends were riding struck him.

Stopped Car At Once

Mr. Brogott, as soon as he saw the boy in front of him stopped the car, and the little fellow was under it when the car came to a stop. He was wedged against a rear wheel. The driver assisted by neighbors and passersby loaded the injured boy into his automobile and hurried him to the Katherine Shaw Bethel hospital returning later for the boy's parents.

The exact nature of his injuries could not be determined at once, as the physician and nurses in charge were working over the little patient. However, it is feared his right leg is broken and that he is internally injured. He also suffered scalp wounds and a bad cut under the chin.

Those who witnessed the accident attach no blame to Mr. Brogott. They state that he was driving very slowly and had the boys stayed on the sidewalk or curb instead of running into the road as the car approached the accident would have been averted. Mr. Brogott was still at the hospital with the boy's parents at three o'clock, his family staying at the George Carbaugh home.

Examination at the hospital showed that the boy's injuries, as outlined above, but it is stated that they are not necessarily serious.

INTEND TO PAVE CENTRAL STREET

LOCAL BOARD FIGURES ON BRICK ON THAT STREET—
SIDEWALK ON WEST SIDE

The local board of improvements, now that the preparations for the paving of Third street have been satisfactorily started, is contemplating the paving of Central Place from Third street to Fifth street. It is argued that this street is used more than Depot avenue to reach the depots and therefore it should be brick ed. The board also plans to put a cement walk on the west side of Central Place.

HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE TODAY

WM. LOHR HOUSE IN N. DIXON WAS BURNED TO THE GROUND

FIRE DEPARTMENT WAS HELPLESS

No Water Was Within Reach of the Blaze—Nearly All Furniture Was Removed—Property of Perry Bar right Estate and Fully Insured

The residence of William H. Lohr 1014 N. Jefferson avenue, was burned to the ground shortly after 6 o'clock this morning, while Mr. Lohr was over town on business, his wife and children being alone in the burning building. The house, which is near the north city limits was too far away from any fire hydrant for the fire department to make any fight against the blaze and the effort of the firemen and the neighbors were bent toward taking the furniture from the building, nearly all of which was saved.

The origin of the fire is unknown. Whether an over heated stove pipe or defective chimney was the cause of the blaze is not certain, but in the opinion of the firemen the origin of the fire was one or the other. Mr. Lohr had driven to town from his small truck farm, and while he was on the south side of the river, the fire was discovered by his family.

The alarm to the fire department was turned in about 6 o'clock and both hose wagon and hook and ladder truck were taken to the scene by the department. However, after reaching the site of the conflagration, the firemen found that the burning house was at least 2500 feet but little over 1500 feet from the nearest fire hydrant, while but little over 1500 feet of hose was carried on the wagon and truck. At that time the entire house was in flames, and it was useless to return to the fire station for more hose. Accordingly the firemen assisted in removing the furniture from the burning building.

The house was owned by the Perry Burright estate, and was fully insured, the loss being estimated at $1,200. Mr. Lohr was unable to estimate his loss this morning, but he is well insured.

PACKED PLAYHOUSE GREETED FRECKLES

THE STORY OF THE LIMBER-
LOST WAS BEAUTIFULLY ACT-ED THURSDAY EVENING

"Freckles," the great novel, by Gene Stratton Porter, dramatized by Neil Twomey, played at the Dixon Opera house Thursday to a fair sized audience.

Freckles was impersonated by John Roberts, a young actor, who carried the part well, and speedily made a place for himself in the hearts of his audience. His personality was good, and his acting natural, in fact every actor in the cast seemed especially adapted to the individual parts. Edith Mendoza, who played opposite Mr. Roberts, as the Angel, is a young actress of much talent. Endowed with beauty, grace and charm, with a rich appealing voice, she steadily championed Freckles' cause throughout the play and know with a woman's keen intuition the instinctive good, courage, and natural nobility of character such as Freckles, made others recognize it and through her sympathy and insight inspired Freckles to develop into the splendid man he was destined to be. Her part while apparently a simple one to portray, was a difficult one. The leads were finely supported by the rest of the company and altogether gave Dixon an excellent production.

Special mention should be made of the music by Smith's orchestra, their smooth, beautiful music being greatly enjoyed.

INJURED CONDUCTOR IMPROVES

Conductor George Lane of the Northwestern, who was injured at Geneva early in the week is reported to most favorably convalescing. The conductor has many friends in Dixon who will be pleased to hear that his injuries were not as serious as was at first feared.

SUB. FIRE STATION WOULD LOWER RATES

INSURANCE INSPECTOR SUG-GESTS LOCATION FOR A NEW STATION

CORNER OF KING AND OAK COURTS

Dementtown and Several Factories
Would Be Accessible From That Point—Dementtown
Needs Protection

A reduction of nearly twenty-five per cent in the insurance rates for residences in Dixon is possible if the suggestions of an insurance inspector who visited Dixon this week are carried out. The inspector whose visit here was after Monday evening's council meeting at which time a petition of Dementtown residents asking for a hose wagon there was presented was interested in conditions here and expressed himself in a way that shows that the insurance companies know fully as much of conditions here as do the local people.

However this man who speaks for many of the insurance companies does not agree that a sub-fire station should be located in the heart of Dementtown business section. Instead he points out an ideal location for a station at the intersection of King and Oak courts and Fifth St. The two short courts which converge toward Nachusa avenue from College avenue form a perfect triangle there and at the east end of this triangle the inspector would have a hose wagon and team station.

Could Reach Factories

He points out that equipment stationed there would be nearly in the center of a district which would take in the shoe factory and Dixon college on the south the American Wagon factory and the Gossard Corset factory on the southwest, and the Dementtown business section and Grand Detour Plow shops on the southeast.

His plan is that the department located there should work all territory west of the Illinois Central tracks, and that the hook and ladder truck, which would be kept at the central station, should work all territory. In the case the truck had to go into the territory covered by the sub-station the men from the central house would arrive in time to find all hose laid, and could then assist where necessary.

Inasmuch as the Dementtown people are unsatisfied with their protection against fire and have taken the matter up with the city council the suggestions of this man are of interest, and would be worthy of consideration, should the council decide on another fire station.

COMMITTEE WILL SOON INSPECT COUNTY HOME

GRAND JURY WILL BE SELECT-ED AT NEXT MEETING OF SUPERVISORS

The County Home committee of the board of supervisors will visit the county farm the first week of December to take the annual invoice of stock and property, which invoice will be reported to the board at their regular meeting Dec. 10. The coming meeting of the board will also be of interest in that the grand jury for the January term of court will be appointed.

LINEMAN BOWERS ESCAPED WITH SMALL INJURY WHEN POLE FELL

A Central Union lineman named Bowers was slightly injured this morning when a pole on which he was working broke, throwing him to the ground. Fortunately the pole did not fall swiftly and the man escaped with minor bruises.

ACCEPTS POSITION HERE

E. C. Burhenn of Franklin Grove, former requisition clerk for the Burlington at St. Louis, has accepted the position of stock clerk at the store house of the Illinois Northern Utilities Co., which is in charge of General Store Keeper H. H. Heinze.

LOCAL POST OFFICE SERVICE IMPROVED

OFFICE WILL BE OPEN 24 HOURS
A DAY—EQUAL TO BIG TOWN SERVICE

Beginning Monday night, November 25th, the Dixon post office will assume the duties of a night office. The lobby will be open 24 hours each day.

On week days the stamp and general delivery windows will be open continuously with the exception of 2 hours, between 9 and 11 p. m. It is the desire of the postmaster to give, in the near future, the stamp and general delivery service during the two hours mentioned also.

Lock box patrons will have access to boxes at any hour during the week, day or night.

Because of the contemplated receipts of mail at night the office believes that lock box patrons will be able, on Sunday mornings, to receive the bulk of that amount of mail, which was received on Sunday, previous to the Sunday closing law, which recently went into effect.

The postmaster has been working for several months to give the citizens of Dixon the above mentioned service. This places the Dixon office on an equal basis, as far as service to the public is concerned, with cities the size of Rockford, Freeport, Decatur, Clinton, and Dubuque, Ia. By this service it is possible to deposit mail at any hour during the night to within 30 minutes of departure of any night train.

REV. ROLVIX HARLAN DEDICATES A CHURCH

KANSAS CITY JOURNAL TELLS OF ACTIVITIES OF FORMER
DIXON PASTOR

HARLAN DEAN OF UNIVERSITY

Leaves Jan. 1 for Ottawa Kansas—
Wonderful Work While in Kansas City

The Kansas Journal of No. 18 has the following article concerning Rev. Harlan, formerly pastor of the Baptist church in Dixon. It can easily be seen that Rev. Harlan has done wonderful things for his Kansas City charge.

Dedication services were held yesterday afternoon in the new Central Baptist church building, which was just completed last week.

The service the members of the congregation pledged $6000 which cleared the church from all debt. Dr. Rolvix Harlan, the pastor who leaves Jan. 1, to take up his duties as dean of Ottawa university at Ottawa, Kas., presided. Dr. W. S. Abernathy, pastor of the First Baptist church, delivered a dedication sermon. His subject was "What mean Ye By These Stones?" He said that the christian church stood for everything that makes for human health, morality and religion. Dr. Harlan preached at service yesterday morning. The evening sermon was by Dr. C. B. Miller, pastor-elect of the new church.

Central Baptist church was organized November 19, 1907, when the congregations of Elm at Eighteenth and Woodland streets and the Olive Baptist church, Ninth and Olive streets, consolidated. The membership of the new church was then 500 persons. Services were held in the Olive street edifice. The present site at Tenth street was bought for $6,125.

The present building is of Gothic architecture, brick, with Carthage stone trimmings. The auditorium will seat 400 persons, the gallery 100 and 500 more seats are provided when twenty-one Sunday school rooms are thrown open. A gymnasium with full equipment is located in the basement. Last year the church basket ball team defeated the Kansas City Athletic Club team and won the championship of Kansas City. They will play Newton, Kas., on Thanksgiving, when they hope to make up for a defeat at the hands of that team last year.

A reception will be held at the church tonight for Dr. Harlan and Dr. Miller, the pastor-elect. It will be followed by a denominational fellowship meeting. An organ recital will be given tomorrow night Wednesday night will be reminiscent night. The church now has a membership of 500 persons.

SCHOOLING FOR THE ILL. NATIONAL GUARD

OFFICERS AND MEN OF I. N. G.
SUBJECT TO NEW REGU-LATIONS

INDOOR AND OUTDOOR SCHOOLS

System is Mapped Out for Definite
Course of Instruction in All Seasons of the Year—Affects Co. G.

In order to systematize the endeavors of commanding officers of the Illinois National Guard in out the state and lay the foundation for a progressive scheme of instruction in each company, a list of regulations has been published for the information and guidance of all officers in the service.

The list for the instruction year consists of two periods the indoor instruction period, and the outdoor period. The indoor period or each organization will begin each year immediately after the close of the summer encampment and will end one week before the beginning of the next encampment, omitting therefrom the time devoted to calls into active service or into special camps of instruction.

The indoor instruction will embrace drills general military instructions and schools. The companies are required to assemble in their armories at least once each week and the commanding officers shall include on the drill report for each month the cause of failure to comply with this order in each case. The course includes one hour for the instruction of recruits in military discipline and care of rifles, the company instruction along advanced lines and indoor rifle firing, bayonet exercise, signals, ceremonies and inspections, guard duty, care of health and instructions in first aid and military courtesy and discipline.

One of the purposes in instituting this school is to break the monotony of having the companies drill each meeting night for one hour. A record is to be kept in each company of the promptness and efficiency of each member along the different lines of study and when he has finished the entire course, he is subject to be dropped from the classes.

The outdoor school will take up map reading and when permissible simple map maneuvers. In selecting instructors for these schools the order very plainly states that the men shall be selected from those who have ability or special training rank shall not govern. The school can be held on the regular drill-night and non-commissioned and commissioned officers' studies will be combined. Frequent inspections will be made by regimental commanders to ascertain the conduct of the instruction.

COM. VAN BIBER AS HUMANE OFFICER

LOCAL OFFICIAL INTERFERES
WHEN HORSE IS IN NEED OF TREATMENT

Commissioner J. D. VanBiber performed a humane act yesterday when in his capacity as a city official he stopped a traveller, who gave him name as G. Kelley, and who also claimed to have been at one time a proof-reader on the Chicago Tribune, from using a horse which was suffering intense pain from a ring-bone. The commissioner had a local blacksmith treat the horse as best he could but allowed Kelley to go on his promise to turn the horse loose in the first pasture he passed.

WILL GO AHEAD WITH THIRD ST. PAVING PROJECT

LOCAL BOARD AFTER STORMY MEETING DECIDES TO USE
BRICK

MATTER WILL GO TO CO. COURT

Several Objectors Wanted Macadam
But Commissioners Were Staunch
In Their Fight for Brick

After a stormy public hearing and a stormier meeting the board of local improvements yesterday voted to go ahead with the scheme of paving West Third street from Galena avenue west to Douglas avenue. Accordingly the scheme will be taken to the county court, where the objectors will have their last opportunity to be heard, and on that occasion their complaints will have to be confined to the question of benefit.

The hearing yesterday afternoon was even more spirited than the first. O. B. Dodge and J. F. Palmer appeared again as the leaders of the objectors while Martin J. Gannon fought valiantly for the paving. Commissioner Schuler, who is member of the board of improvements and who has been away on his annual vacation, was present at the meeting yesterday, and he was an able champion for brick.

Much of the old ground was covered in the arguments but Commissioner Gannon had a little to say about a former reference to "widows and orphans" on Third street, when he stated that he had received a number of phone calls from the widows on the street who said they were perfectly able to take care of themselves.

An aged lady who resides on Third street, stated that she would have to pay for her assessment by taking in washing and she told a story of having to follow that means of livelihood for a number of years. Commissioner Schuler however offered to pay $20 toward the lady's assessment and challenged Mr. Palmer to do likewise. It was pointed out afterwards that the woman in question has a number of healthy employed sons and grandsons who will eventually inherit her property, and it was suggested that they might assist her paying for the improvement.

A surprise came later when the board met to consider action. For Mayor Brinton stated that he thought the board should get estimates on the cost of macadamizing that street. Commissioner Schmid moved that the resolution adopting the scheme for paving be adopted and Commissioner Schuler seconded. When the vote was taken the two votes "yes" and Mayor Brinton, without casting his vote, declared the motion carried.

Second Street Wants Brick
A noteworthy circumstance of yesterday's meeting was the attendance of a delegation of West Second street property owners, who asked the board to prepare a scheme at once for the brick paving of that street. These residents stated that they had talked with many of the property owners on the street and that they all wanted brick. Accordingly the board will take the matter up soon.

WRESTLING MATCH HERE DECEMBER 4TH

MARTINSON AND CUTLER WILL BATTLE FOR HONORS ON LOCAL MAT

Mat fans who have been waiting patiently for the first wrestling exhibition of the season, will be rewarded on Wednesday evening Dec. 4, when Paul Martinson, will meet the well known Charles (Kid) Cutler at the Dixon opera house.

Martinson, who will weigh in at about 110, has trimmed nearly every foreign wrestler of any note and his most important victory was his defeat of Buhx, the West Indian mat king last winter.

Of course he is up against a serious proposition when he tackles Kid Cutler, who has wrestled on the local stage several times in handicapped matches. A good bout is looked for. The event takes place under the auspices of the Dixon Athletic Association.

Dementtown

It was observed on the Ave. this morning that Indian Summer has fled or flowed. Which?

Well thanks can be returned that the possibilities for this winter to be as long as last are very slim.

The claim of the Scots that the finding of wires in the basement of an old castle proves that the telegraph was known there thousands of years ago is refuted by a peccol from China. It is claimed by the Chinese that when the ruins of an old temple were razed no wires were found anywhere, proving that the ancient Chinese knew all about wireless telegraphy.

The most interesting part of a baseball game for women according to our friend P. O., is the argument with the umpire.

Goose Hollow Letter

Elhu Bibbins, our popular drug-gist, made a mistake and put gasoline instead of gin in the "lemon" department of his soda fountain. And now several of our prominent citizens and pillow of the church have gone crazy and imagine they are automobiles.

Amry Tibbs, who has always wanted the postoffice in this man's town but has never got it, is now a full-fledged democrat.

Amos Purdy, who was defeated for road commissioner on the Republican ticket last spring has also joined the democrats, and another addition to the democratic party of our village is Hank Tumms, who has been an unsuccessful candidate for register of deed, county treasurer, county clerk, probate judge and coroner.

Anson Frisby, our banker, who has been travelling in Europe writes to his wife that he has bought a Rembrandt; but he fails to say whether it is a six-cylinder, seven-passenger or a runabout. His wife says she hopes it is one of those glass covered limousines.

Abe Renfrew had the gol darnest time the other day tryin' to shoot a weasel that had been a robbin' his chicken coop. He laid for Mr. Weasel for some time, and last Wednesday evening he seen him crawling careful up to his coop. Abe took his shot gun and started after him. The weasel seen Abe instanter and started for the silo. Abe gave chase, and when the weasel started runnin' round the silo Abe started runnin' too. Now the weasel is one of the swiftest of the carniorous bivalves and kin run like democratic candidates. The weasel kept just ahead of Abe, and on the fourth lap Abe let fire with his shot gun, but the weasel was just around the arc of the silo and Abe killed three chickens and a calf on the first shot, and then he found out he couldn't shoot around a curve with a straight-barreled gun. So, while he was runnin' he banged the gun agin tree and bent the barrel so it would shoot in a curve around the silo. He let fire just as he seen the weasel's tail disappearing around the silo and said: "There, take that you chicken thievin' cuss!" but he didn't hit the weasel. The shot flew round the silo and soon ketches Abe in the back because it was going faster than he was. Abe is just able to be around, but while he was in bed the weasel came back and got all his chickens.

HANDS ITCHED AND BURNED

So Sore Could Not Close Them. Started With Rash. Just Terrible. Broke Into Sores. Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Him Entirely.

Abbotsford, Wis.—"My son had eczema on his hands for about one year. The eczema started with a rash. His hands were so sore he could not close them, and when he wet his hands they hurt him so he could hardly wash. His hands itched and burned just terrible and if he would scratch them, they would break out into sores. He could not get any rest or sleep, and his hands looked quite bad."

"We used medicine and ointment and it kept getting worse all the time. I got some Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after washing his hands with the Cuticura Soap and putting some of the Cuticura Ointment on them for about six months they got well and have not broken out since. Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured him entirely." (Signed) Mrs. Laurence Kiehl, Feb. 13, 1912. Not only is Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczemas and other distressing eruptions of skin and scalp, but no other emollients do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough and oily skins, itching, scaly scalps, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and shapless nails, nor do it so economically. The DEAR TEACHER TALKS UPON THANKSGIVING
WILBUR D. NESBIT

GOOD old Mr. Timmins had invited his sons and daughters and brothers and sisters and their families to take dinner with himself and wife on Thanksgiving. They were very thankful.

Good old Mrs. Timmins had been up since 4 o'clock that morning roasting the turkey and devising the pies and getting things in readiness.

The guests had arrived, and the hour or so that elapsed until dinner was spent by the older ones in talking of the weather.

The weather is a great topic of conversation. If it is a nice day or if it is not, it can be discussed. That, children, is where the weather has the bulge on people. If they are nice people, we may talk about them in polite society. If they are not, it is different.

Remember that. The little Timminses and the other children and grandchildren and nephews and nieces were merrily whacking the hardwood floor with grandpa's cane, and rubbing their shoeblackening off against the upholstery of the chairs, and tearing the lace curtains, and otherwise disporting themselves in the merry, merry manner of true innocent youth when it goes a-visiting.

Grandpa Timmins was observed to fidget uneasily in his seat, but this had no effect upon the papas of the children. It was a relief to them to see someone else standing for the damage done.

Finally Grandpa Timmins said, sweetly: "Here, children, bless your little hearts, is a box of matches. Take them and play with them, for the house is insured against fire, but not against you."

Wasn't that a sassy bump? How many little boys or girls in the class would conduct themselves as these children did when visiting?

Of course, you say that now, but your teacher dear will not make bets on you.

Finally the dinner was announced, and good old Grandpa Timmins took his place at the head of the table to carve the turkey.

The turkey is a noble bird, children. He is worth about 40 cents a pound, dressed, but if you buy feathers, feet and all, the market-man will let you have the bird for 39 1/2 cents. If a turkey, with the feathers and feet on, weighs 10 pounds, and 4 ounces, when will the fowl appear for the last time? Write the answer on your slates.

Nature has so devised us that we cannot eat feathers with any degree of comfort or satisfaction. If we could, we would probably feel down in the mouth oftener than we do.

That is right. Always laugh when the teacher gets off one. It will help with your grades.

Grandpa Timmins took up the carving knife and asked each of the little darlings what he or she would have. And each one of them—they were 16 at the table—said he or she would have the drumstick and a wing and the gizzard and plenty of stuffing.

Whereat Grandpa Timmins smiled a saccharine smile and politely inquired: "Do you think your beloved grandparent has barbecued a cold-storage house?"

Then he attacked the turkey and the knife slid all over the surface of the fowl, for it was one of those leather-finished birds that have seen better days, although the marketman was able to break its wings and tear the skin.

But marketmen are strong individuals.

Is there any little boy present who hopes to grow up to be a market-man?

Would you rather be a marketman or be president?

Nobly spoken, my fair child; always be strenuous.

At last Grandpa Timmins found the weak spot in the armor of the turkey and filed off sufficient meat to help the guests. Then he said "Whoop!" and mopped his brow with his napkin.

He was not a foxy grandpa, or he would have made his newest son-in-law do the hard work.

Then everybody fell to, and ate all the good jelly and pie and pudding and cake and other stuff that Grandma Timmins had worked so hard over, while she tried to look as if her long hours of toil were amply repaid.

And after dinner the babies cried and two of the boys were whipped and the little girls tore their Sunday frocks playing tag behind the curio cabinet. They also broke some of grandpa's pet relics.

Then he broke his good resolution.

Later on they all went home.

And good old Grandpa and Grandma Timmins sat down and looked at the wreck and looked at one another and said:

"Whoop!"

For the company had gone. And they were very thankful.

CRANBERRY SAUCE

A Crisis At the Dinner.

Mr. Gooph (to the guests)—Which do you prefer—dark or white meat? Eight Guests (in chorus)—White.

Mr. Gooph—Sorry, but our cook prefers the white meat. Can't you change your minds?

He Lost Twice.

Farmer Hocorn—Here, you black rascal, where you goin' with that turkey?

Mr. Darkleigh—Deed, Mistah Hocorn, I ain't goin' nowhar. I's payin' a 'lection bet, dat's all.

The Reason Thereof.

Askit—Why does Thanksgiving always come on Thursday?

Tellit—So that the remnants of the turkey will not run into the Sunday menu.

SUCH A MISTAKE.

Boarder—Ah, I see that you have killed that mosquito which was buzzing around last night.

Landlady—Mosquito? Sir! That is our Thanksgiving turkey.

A Preference.

Turkey awful hard to get—Rathu have a goose, 'Sides, day ain't so hard ter reach When dey on de rocs'.

THANKSGIVING FABLE.

There was once a proud fat turkey that looked down upon all the rest of the turkeys and was greatly disliked because of its arrogance and conceit.

And when Thanksgiving time came around, the owner of the turkeys came among them, ax in hand.

Whereupon all of the other turkeys were jealous of the proud fat turkey and said that at last it would get what was coming to it.

But the proud, fat turkey only strutted and gobbled with more arrogance than ever. And its owner said:

"I guess I'll not kill that one. I'll send it to the turkey show and take a ribbon."

Which he did.

This teaches us that conceit sometimes helps, if there is any excuse for it.

Not a Mere Festival.

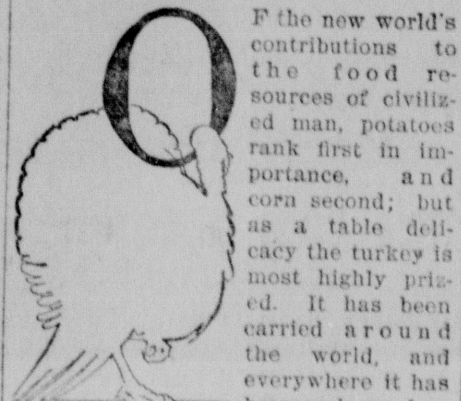

Thanksgiving Day, if it be properly observed, observed in the spirit of true Christian love, will be an inspiration to all. It is not a mere time of feasting. If that were all there would be no Thanksgiving in it. It is a religious feast. And now as of old men are asked to remember, when they have eaten and are full, who it is that gives them power to get wealth.

A thankful heart and a humble and loving spirit are the graces which ought to be coveted by those who catch the true spirit of Thanksgiving Day.

TURKEY LEADS WORLD

Is Most Highly Prized as Table Delicacy.

By JOHN L. COWAN.

Of the new world's contributions to the food resources of civilized man, potatoes rank first in importance, and corn second; but as a table delicacy the turkey is most highly prized. It has been carried around the world, and everywhere it has been welcomed as an important addition to the short list of domesticated fowls.

The turkey was introduced into Spain in 1520, and into England in 1534, and soon was reared as a barnyard fowl in both countries. Not for nearly half a century was it taken to France. So far as can be learned, the first turkey ever seen in that country was shipped in 1570 from Boston, then a little settlement in the almost unknown American wilderness, for the decoration of the guests at the wedding feast of King Charles IX and Elizabeth of Austria.

Civilized man prizes the turkey solely as a table delicacy; but strangely enough, the American Indians esteemed it more for the sake of its feathers than for its flesh. When the bow and arrow constituted the most important weapon of war and of the chase, feathers were of the greatest utility to the tribespeople, being attached to the shafts of their arrows to give them buoyancy, and to cause them to carry straight. For this purpose, most of the tribes employed the feathers of eagles, some those of turkeys, and some those of both birds.

The Cheyennes, whose hunting grounds comprised most of the present state of Wyoming, are said to have used turkey feathers exclusively for their arrows, and were known to the neighboring tribes by a name that signified "striped arrows," in reference to this preference. The Apaches, also, used turkey feathers for arrow making, as did the Navajos, Sioux, Arapahoes and many other tribes, although no others employed them so exclusively as did the Cheyennes and Apaches.

Beyond doubt the most striking and attractive headdress ever worn by any aboriginal people was the war bonnet of the western Indians. It was composed of the tail feathers of turkeys or eagles (depending upon the practice of the tribe). It was fashioned to encircle the crown of the wearer's head and extend down his back to the ground. The war bonnet was worn only by chiefs, and every feather was supposed to represent a separate deed of valor.

In the ceremonial dances, strange and grotesque masks are worn by the participants, some of whom personate the nature gods, while others take the role of the clan ancestors. Many of these masks are elaborately decorated with feathers of turkeys, eagles, owls, hawks and other birds. In the decoration of the altars erected on ceremonial occasions for the worship of the nature gods, feathers are conspicuous. But perhaps the most common use of feathers is in the making of prayer sticks, which are planted at springs, by the banks of running streams, near the shrines of the gods, in the fields where crops are growing, or where seed has been planted, and in nooks and crannies among the rocks. The prayer sticks are made by the priests and given to the people.

Analogous to the use of feathers in the making of prayer sticks and altar decorations, is their employment for the making of fetiches, used by the various secret orders, or fraternities. These fetiches, of course, possess magical virtues, understood only by the initiated. Among the Zuni is a fraternity known as the "Hlewekwe," or sword swallowers. The "sword" is a long, wooden implement, which in the course of the ceremonial dance of the order is thrust far down into the throat of the performer and then withdrawn. To the upper end of the "sword" is attached a large bunch of the tail feathers of the turkey, to which, of course, the ceremony owes much of its supposed magical power.

This dance of the sword swallowers is important for the reason that it is supposed to bring the snows of winter, which melt and sink into the ground, thus preparing the soil for the reception of the seeds at planting time in the spring.

Feathers of many birds, and particularly of the turkey, are used in the sports and games of the Indians. The game of "Pokianni," a favorite among the Zuni, is played with shuttlecocks made of corn husks and turkey feathers. Fetiches are made by the priests for foot races, consisting mainly of feathers from the legs of turkeys, which are supposed to give fleetness of foot to the runners.

Teaching Is Plain.

Thanksgiving day is no mere civil ordinance—it is a religious festival. It should be so regarded. Certainly its teaching is plain enough. All that we have of good—liberty, political equality, self-government, religious freedom, national and individual prosperity—is held in trust. We can show our thankfulness for these great blessings only by using them for the glory of God and the good of humanity.

MONARCH METAL Weather Strips

Do not think of the Monarch Metal Weather Strips as a luxury to be put on as something extra when you can afford it. You cannot afford to be without them. Read this carefully.

Every window and door in your house—in everybody's house—that is not weather stripped, has cracks between the sash and the frame, which is usually about 1-16 inch to make the sash operate properly under all conditions. It has been proven conclusively that with a wind velocity of 15 miles per hour, this crevice will admit 145 cubic feet of air per hour for every lineal foot of length. (See Engineering Review of March, 1911.) This means nearly 3,000 cubic feet of air per hour in a double hung window of average size. With greater velocity of wind, this amount is proportionately increased.

This means cold air, dirt, soot. It may mean frozen water pipes. It does mean drudgery of endless cleaning and dusting, which can be remedied with the

MONARCH METAL WEATHER STRIPS

These strips also stop all rattling of windows, and the windows will always be easy to operate, and there will be no sticking.

There are many kinds of weather strips, from the old rubber-edged kind, whose life lasts about a year, to the sharp-edged metal type that cuts the hands, sash cords, etc., and requires deep grooves in the sash for its installation.

The PERFECT type is the MONARCH METAL WEATHER STRIP. It consists of two sliding tubes, a tube within a tube. This ingenious interlocking shape makes the strip absolutely weather-tight.

A test made of a double-hung sash, 36x36, fitted 1-16 play all around, with the wind at a velocity of thirty-five miles an hour, allowed a leakage of 109.98 cubic feet of air per minute. Equipped with the Monarch Metal Weather Strip, the leakage was reduced to 3.36 cubic feet of air per minute, 25 per cent more efficient than any other.

Sides, top and sill strip are made of zinc, and the interlocking strip at the meeting rail is made of copper and bronze.

They are applied to any windows or doors, old or new, by experienced mechanics, and are guaranteed unconditionally, for wear and repair, to outlast the frames to which they are attached.

The following buildings are already equipped with the Monarch Metal Weather Strips:

The Elks' Club.
Bovey Building.
South Side High School.

CRAWA BOY B.
TO DEATH THURSDAY

Ottawa, Ill., Nov. 23.—Donald th three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Guy, who reside in this city met a horrible death at the family home, while playin with a lighted paper in the kitchen. There was no one in the kitchen at the time and just how the little fellow set the paper on fire is not known but it is supposed that he had gotten possession of a match and set fire to the paper, which in turn ignited his clothing. The child had been repeatedly chastised for playing with fire.

THAT DAM SITE.

The state of Iowa gave a thousand dollars toward building a dam between big and little Spirit lakes. The owners of the mill at Milford said dam it they couldn't. The state said dam it they could, and then the case went into court; the mill men getting out a dam injunction. The people around Spirit Lake said they wouldn't be dammed and the state said be dammed they would. And those who didn't want to fight just the same. Some said the fish couldn't get up a dam site, and others said that a dam site could be built with a fish way that would let the dammed fish go up so that some of them would be dammed above the dam and others below the dam. The mill owners said that dammed out-let by a millsite was dam enough and they didn't want any more dam by a dam site. Then the case came before Judge Quorton of Algona. Quorton knows a dam site from a mill site, and a mill dam site more about lots of other things than some folks have got hay, and he dissolved the injunction in soft water. The dam was will now be above the mill site and the dammed fish can go where they please for all Quorton cares after the dam fishway is put in, and it is hoped that the dammed lake will now fill up so the dammed mud turtles can get a drink and let the Spirit Lakers run their dammed boats and stop a dam site controversy.

And although this sounds like swearing there isn't a swear word in it. It shows the capabilities of the English language, how words of the same sound but spelled differently and of different meaning by spelling and definition and another one by sound.

CAPITAL WITHIN BULGAR'S GRASP

Capture of Towns by Allies
Opens Way for Advance on Constantinople.

AUSTRIA CALLS ARMY OUT

Franz Joseph Draws Attention of Europe by Ordering Reserves in Readiness to Be Rushed to Servian Frontier.

Sofia, Nov. 23.—The Bulgarian troops have occupied Dodeaghat, on the Gulf of Enos, and Malgara, about forty miles northward therefrom, which opens the entire territory west of Constantinople for the advance of the allies on the capital.

The Mir says the Turks made a sortie from Adrianople with the purpose of recapturing Kartaltepe fort, but were repulsed, leaving 350 dead on the field.

Peace Move by Bulgaria.

Dr. S. Daneff, president of the Bulgarian parliament; General Savoff, Bulgarian commander-in-chief, and General Fitchett, the chief of staff of the Bulgarian army, have been appointed Bulgarian plenipotentiaries. They will proceed immediately to the Tchatalja lines to meet the Turkish plenipotentiaries there, and also will represent Servia and Montenegro.

Now that the delegates have been appointed, it is expected here that formal negotiations between the Bulgarians and the Turks will begin within twenty-four hours.

The rejection of the preliminary conditions by the Turks caused little surprise here. The Bulgarians expected to encounter the Turkish propensity for bargaining, and therefore demanded more than they expected to obtain.

The Balkan allies are prepared to grant reasonable modifications of their terms, and are confident that Turkey will finally agree to them.

Austria Calls Out Reserves.

London, Nov. 23.—While a comparative lull was in force along the line of battle at Tchatalja, Austria drew the attention of Europe to herself by calling out her army reserves with the intention of rushing them to the Servian border.

This action of Austria is fraught with interest to the high chancelleries of Europe and with danger to the peace of Europe. Servia is a minor factor. It is against Russia that Austria is directing her war preparations, and if there is to be a fight it will be between Russia and Austria over the head of Servia.

Russia Espouses Servian Cause.

Russia's open espousal of the Servian side of the Austrian dispute has aroused the wrath of Austria to the breaking point, and the mobilization of troops is the result.

Nazim Pasha, the Turkish commander, reported fighting along the Tchatalja lines, but there were no engagements of a decisive nature. The Bulgarians began a bombardment of Blyuk Chekmeje on the Sea of Marmora, but their guns were silenced by shells from Turkish warships. They also fired on the Turkish works at Mektebharich, but did little damage.

SENATOR BURTON PEEVED

Ohio Statesman to Quit Politics After Present Term Expires.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 23.—Angered by the criticism that has marked his term as senator, and disgusted by the factional fight which has split the Republican party, Theodore Burton has decided to make no fight for reelection in 1914, and is ready to quit politics. This announcement came from a close friend of Burton, following the report from Washington that President Taft has recognized Harry Daugherty as the referee in Ohio patronage matters.

Americans have opened a relief fund at Montego Bay and are doing good service in the collecting of money and forwarding supplies.

Dr. Stevens of Rochelle dressed the wounds, employing nineteen stitches to sew up the cuts inflicted.

Junior Party

The Junior class was entertained last night at the home of Miss Barton in South Dixon. The party was arranged by the class as a whole, including the work of Mr. Barton. Everyone enjoyed themselves playing games. Refreshments were served before departing. The class was accompanied by Misses Mertz and Henderson, the history and English teachers.

Basket Ball

Basket ball practice is now becoming a success. Before, it looked as if there wouldn't be a team, but it is now changed. Wednesday evening there were about twenty-five from the south side and several from the north side. They also held a meeting last night and elected Mr. Loftus manager. We all believe that Mr. Loftus will have a good schedule for the coming season.

Senior and Soph Game

The girls of the Senior class defeated the girls of the Sophomore class in a fast game of basket ball. The score was 19 to 4. The Sophomore girls played a fine game and would have defeated the Seniors if it were not for nervousness on the part of the girls. Misses Stitzel and Phillips were the stars in the game.

FEDERATION AIDS BOMB TRIAL MEN

Passes Resolution Asking Unions to Assist in Raising Funds for Them.

REVEAL PLOT TO KILL BURNS

McManigal on Stand at Indianapolis Says McNamara Planned to Put Bomb in Detective's Desk—Tells History of Many Explosions.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 23.—The American Federation of Labor decided to ask the unions affiliated with it to raise money for the defense of the alleged dynamiters who are on trial in Indianapolis.

The resolution adopted was: "That delegates to the convention, on their return, advise their international unions and local bodies to provide financial assistance for the trade unionists on trial in Indianapolis to aid them in securing a fair trial and in appealing the cases should fair trial be denied them."

The resolution also urged the men on trial be "not convicted in advance or the decision in their cases be influenced" by the alleged fact that certain corporations and a private detective agency "are clamoring for a conviction."

Planned Detective Burns' Death.
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23.—Ortle McManigal, the confessed dynamiter, on the witness stand here told of a plan of the McNamara brothers to kill Detective Burns in Chicago.

McManigal said that J. B. McNamara told him they had plotted to put a dynamite bomb in Burns' desk. McManigal said he did not believe it would work. He said that after the McNamaras had investigated they decided they could not get away with it.

While on the witness stand McManigal related the story of the last three months of the four years of violence by himself and McNamara.

Ready for "French Lick Job."

At the afternoon session he told of the dynamiting of the Heyl and Patterson works at Milwaukee, March 16, 1911. After returning to Indianapolis he said he met J. B. on the street. J. B. had a suit case, said McManigal, and remarked to him: "I've got the mess in this suit case for the French Lick job."

The explosion, which wrecked a part of a new addition to Thomas Taggart's hotel at French Lick, occurred at four o'clock on the morning of March 20, 1911.

Before he left for Omaha, said McManigal, there was a conversation about the Milwaukee job. Hockin, J. J. and J. B. McNamara and McManigal being at the headquarters of the union.

$150,000 Blast Was "Good Job."
Hockin, according to the dynamiter, said it had been a "good job" as he had seen in the newspapers that the damage was about $150,000. Hockin also said, according to McManigal, that the papers said that a part of the big unloading bridge had fallen on a boat at the dock and had broken the boat.

"He did two jobs," J. B. McNamara remarked, according to his fellow dynamiter, "that was a seab boat he smashed, too."

TO ELECT POSTMASTER

Kentucky Town to Ballot for Handler of Mail.

Marion, Home of Senator-Elect Ollie James, to Try Experiment—First Event of Its Kind.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 23.—Marion, county seat of Crittenden county and home of United States Senator-elect Ollie James, is perhaps the first town to positively arrange to hold an election to elect a postmaster. Senator-elect James has also announced that he will endorse the man receiving the most votes. Consequently there is already a hot race on and many candidates, limited, of course, to Democrats, are actively at work campaigning. The election will be held on Saturday, January 18. And all known Democrats and those Democrats who will become of age by the November election next year, will be allowed to vote. Secret ballot will be used, and the candidates will draw lots for position on the ballot. Officers for the election have already been announced and the voting place will be former State Senator P. S. Maxwell's office in the courthouse yard.

Refuses to Aid Jews.

London, Nov. 23.—Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign minister, declines to approach Russia with a view to procuring the withdrawal of the restrictions placed on British Jews in that country, on the ground that such action on the part of Great Britain would lead to the termination of the Russo-British treaty of commerce.

Make your Christmas Gifts Attractive at Our Expense

Regardless of the size or value of the gift itself, wrap it up in a neat paper, put on a few Xmas seals and Xmas stamps, inclose a pretty gift card, and attach a fancy tag or express label. It is quite the thing to do—the practice is growing year by year. Besides, it adds a lot to the holiday sentiment. Perhaps you have priced these "fancy fixings" in the stores and found them "too expensive." If not, price them now. Then you will fully appreciate this liberal offer.

A 226-Piece Assortment Free To Every Subscriber

Each piece is distinctly designed and colored, beautifully embossed on fine white stock and fully equal in appearance and quality to the "very best" subjects offered in the stores at "those high prices." Here is a comprehensive assortment, a variety to meet every want and large enough for the whole family's use. It contains:

6 Large Cards	50 Medium Seals	15 Post Cards
6 Medium Cards	50 Small Seals	6 Large Tags
10 Small Cards	16 Stamps	8 Medium Tags
25 Large Seals	2 Christmas Folders	10 Small Tags
10 "Do Not Open" Stickers	10 "Merry Christmas" Stickers

We have tried to realize every want of our readers in this assortment—to make it complete and of the best quality. We have given a great deal of thought to a balanced variety, even including Xmas Post Cards, so that you may "remember" those to whom you will not send gifts. It is with great satisfaction that we offer this assortment to our readers, realizing that not only the quantity but the quality will favorably impress every recipient—that every one who receives this package will be more than satisfied.

SCHRANK IS INSANE

Alienists Declare Roosevelt's
Assailant of Unsound Mind.

Unanimous Verdict of Milwaukee Doctors is That Prisoner Should Be Sent to Asylum.

Milwaukee, Nov. 23.—John Schrank is insane. Such was the unanimous report of the commission of alienists investigating the mental condition of the assailant of Colonel Roosevelt.
The conclusion reached by the commission, as predicted several days ago and presented in court when the case was called, are as follows:

"1. John Schrank is suffering from insane delusion, grandiose in character and of a systematized variety.

"2. In our opinion he is insane at the present time.

"3. On account of the connection existing between his delusions and the act with which he stands charged we are of the opinion he is unable to confer intelligently with counsel on the conduct of his defense."

Schrank probably will be committed to the Northern Hospital for the Insane at Oaklawn by Municipal Judge
A. C. Backus, in conformity with the report. Attorney James J. Flanders, appointed by the court as counsel for the defendant, was asked if he had any questions to ask. After a whispered conversation with the defendant, Mr. Flanders said that he had no request to make.

The five alienists were then taken in hand, one by one, by District Attorney W. C. Zabel and asked a series of technical questions, to which all responded to the effect that Schrank was afflicted with a disease called chronic paranoia and that he was addicted to homicidal tendencies and should be committed to an institution where diseases of this nature are treated.
